As the right to use the mark EDEN, alone and in combination with other word and designs, has become incontestable, Registration Nos. 1,452,337, 1,862,634, 2,229,053, 2,272,652, 2,360,206, 2,503,977, 2,977,773, 3,071,337, 3,102,575, 4,264,570, 4,272,393 and 4,431,041 are conclusive evidence of Plaintiff's exclusive right to use the marks shown therein in commerce as provided by §§ 15 and 33(b) of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1065 and 1115(b). True copies of Registration Nos. 1,452,337, 1,862,634, 2,229,053, 2,272,652, 2,360,206, 2,503,977, 2,977,773, 3,071,337, 3,102,575, 4,264,570, 4,272,393 and 4,431,041 are attached hereto as Exhibit A, and made a part hereof.

(29) Notwithstanding Plaintiff's well-known and prior established rights in the mark EDEN for food and beverage products, Defendant has engaged in the advertising, promotion, distribution, offering for sale, and sale of a variety of food and beverage products under the trademark EDEN shown below in the State of Michigan and interstate commerce:

Defendant uses the trademark EDEN alone and in combination with other words and/or a designs; however, the EDEN formative is typically the most prominent element of the trademark.

(30) Defendant markets and sells a variety of food and beverage products, including “Classic Syrups” (e.g., French vanilla, caramel, hazelnut, Irish cream, mocha, almond and cinnamon), “Fun and Fruity Flavored Syrups” (e.g., blue curaco, blueberry, honey, kiwi, mango, peach, raspberry and strawberry), “Sugar Free Syrups” (e.g., sugar free caramel and sugar free vanilla), “Functional Syrups” (e.g., alert, energy and immune), and “Shakeable Toppings” (e.g., French vanilla, mini marshmallows, cookies and cream, cinnamon and chocolate. Product packaging examples for certain of the foregoing products, as displayed on Defendant’s website, are included as Exhibit B.

(31) The parties’ products are closely related and move through the same and/or closely related channels of trade to the same or closely similar classes of purchasers.

(32) Defendant’s product offerings employing the EDEN trademark can be found at <www.edensyrups.com>. Defendant’s products employing the EDEN trademark are also offered through <www.sunnyskyproducts.com>.

(33) True copies of the packaging of one of Defendant’s food products sold under the mark EDEN, which was purchased at a retail location in the State of Michigan, is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

(34) Had Defendant performed any kind of trademark search prior to the branding of its products, or at any time thereafter, it would have discovered Plaintiff’s numerous, long-standing federal trademark registrations.

(35) Defendant’s use of the trademark EDEN in the manner hereinabove alleged is likely to cause the public to believe, contrary to fact, that Defendant’s food and beverage products are in some way sponsored or approved by, or are otherwise affiliated or connected with, Plaintiff. Defendant's use of the trademark EDEN accordingly infringes Plaintiff's rights in the mark EDEN, alone and in combination with other words and designs, under § 32(1) of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1), and at common law.

(36) Unless enjoined by this Court, Defendant will continue to infringe Plaintiff's trademark EDEN, thereby deceiving the public and causing Plaintiff immediate and irreparable injury for which it has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT II – UNFAIR COMPETITION

(37) As a cause of action and ground for relief, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant is engaged in acts of unfair competition under § 43(a)(1) of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1), and at common law, and incorporates by reference ¶¶ (1) through (36) of the complaint as a part of this count.

(38) By reason of Plaintiff's prior adoption and use of the EDEN trademark, Plaintiff's rights in and to that name are superior to and supersede Defendant's right to use "EDEN" as a designation for identical and closely-related food and beverage products.

(39) Defendant's use of the trademark EDEN in connection with food and beverage products in the manner hereinabove alleged constitutes a false designation of origin within the meaning of § 43(a)(1) of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1).

(40) Defendant's acts as stated herein deceive and tend to deceive the public into believing, falsely, that Defendant's goods are those of, are sponsored or approved by, or are in some other way connected with Plaintiff, all to the irreparable injury of Plaintiff's trade and goodwill and to the injury of the public.

(41) Unless enjoined by this Court, Defendant will continue said acts of unfair competition, thereby causing Plaintiff immediate and irreparable injury for which it has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT III - TRADE NAME INFRINGEMENT

(42) As a cause of action and ground for relief, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant is engaged in trade name infringement at common law and incorporates by reference ¶¶ (1) through (41) of the complaint as part of this count.

(43) Plaintiff has continuously used EDEN FOODS as a trade name in connection with food and beverage products since at least as early as 1967, long prior to the acts of Defendant complained of herein.

(44) As a result of the substantial and extensive advertising and sales of food and beverage products under the trade name EDEN FOODS and Plaintiff's maintenance of premium quality standards relating thereto, said trade name has become famous and is well and favorably known as a famous and distinctive indication of origin of the food and beverage products sold by Plaintiff and as a symbol of the highest quality products.

(45) Defendant's use of the trademark EDEN in the manner hereinabove alleged is likely to cause the public to believe, contrary to fact, that Defendant and its products sold under said trademark are in some way sponsored or approved by, or are otherwise affiliated or connected with, Plaintiff and thus infringes the trade name EDEN FOODS at common law.

(46) Unless enjoined by this Court, Defendant will continue to infringe the trade name EDEN FOODS, thereby deceiving the public and causing Plaintiff immediate and irreparable damage for which it has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT IV - TRADEMARK DILUTION

(47) As a cause of action and ground for relief, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant has engaged in acts of trademark dilution by tarnishment under § 43(c)(2)(C) of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(c)(2)(C), and incorporates by reference ¶¶ (1) through (46) of the complaint as part of this count.

(48) As a result of Plaintiff's extensive and substantial advertising and sales of food and beverage products under the trademark EDEN, alone and in combination with other words and designs, and the maintenance of the highest premium quality standards relating thereto, said trademark mark is well and favorably known to the general public throughout the United States as a distinctive indication of origin and had become a famous mark within the meaning of § 43(c)(1) of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)(1), long prior to Defendant's first use of the trademark EDEN complained of herein.

(49) On information and belief, Defendant's products are not organic and the production and sale of inorganic and impure products under the EDEN trademark will tarnish the food and beverage products sold by Plaintiff under the EDEN trademark.

(50) Defendant's use of the trademark EDEN is likely to tarnish the distinctive quality of, and the reputation and goodwill symbolized by, Plaintiff's famous trademark EDEN within the meaning of § 43(c)(2)(C) of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)(2)(C).

(51) Unless enjoined by this Court, Defendant is likely to continue said acts of trademark dilution, thereby causing Plaintiff immediate and irreparable damage for which it has no adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully pray that:

(1) The Court enter judgment that Defendant has infringed the trademark EDEN

under § 32(1) of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1), and at common law; has engaged in acts of unfair competition in violation of § 43(a)(1) of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1), and the common law; has infringed the trade name EDEN FOODS at common law; and has tarnished the distinctive qualities of the famous trademark EDEN under § 43(c)(2)(C) of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)(2)(C); and has otherwise injured Plaintiff's business reputation by using the trademark EDEN QUALITY PRODUCT & Design in the manner complained of herein.

(2) Defendant and each of its respective agents, employees, servants, attorneys, successors, and assigns, and all others in privity or acting in concert therewith, be preliminarily and permanently enjoined from:

- (a) Using any trademark, service mark, corporate name, domain name or other commercial indication of origin that consists of or incorporates the mark EDEN or any other trademark, service mark, trade name, corporate name, domain name and/or other commercial indication of origin that is confusingly similar to EDEN;
- (b) Competing unfairly with Plaintiff or otherwise injuring Plaintiff's business reputation in the manner complained of herein; and
- (c) Otherwise infringing the trademark EDEN and the trade name EDEN FOODS and/or tarnishing the distinctive quality of the famous mark EDEN.

(3) Pursuant to § 36 of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1118, Defendant be directed to deliver up for destruction or other disposition by Plaintiff all advertisements, brochures, labels, packaging, signs, prints, decals, business cards, order forms, and all other materials in the possession, custody, or under the control of Defendant that bear or are labeled with the trademark EDEN, alone and in combination with other words.

(4) Pursuant to § 35(a) of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a), as amended, Defendant be required to pay to Plaintiff the damages which Plaintiff has sustained as a result of Defendant's acts of trademark infringement, unfair competition and trademark dilution.

(5) Pursuant to § 35(a) of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a), as amended, Defendant be required in equity to account for and pay to Plaintiff the profits Defendant has realized which are attributable to its acts of trademark infringement, unfair competition and trademark dilution.

(6) Defendant be required to pay to Plaintiff both the costs of this action and, in view of the exceptional nature of this case, reasonable attorneys' fees in accordance with § 35 of the Federal Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1117.

(7) Plaintiff be granted such other, different and additional relief as this Court deems equitable and proper.
